Wheaton's Anticipation

Town Dwellers are ecstatic. Lisa Marian, a resident of Wheaton for over 40 years recounts her emotion after hearing the news of the store's Grand Opening. She stated, " I have been a fan of Portillo's my entire life; I practically lived off of their roast beef and fries as a kid. I jumped up and down once I heard that a Portillo's was opening up so close to home. This will be a milestone in our town's history. "
